Problem statement: In the previous session, you developed a sketch for DoToday, a startup working on a next-gen to-do list and task management app. Suppose the app, based on those sketches, was launched and received a huge response from users. But the feedback was also received that a web version of the app is needed. As the PM, you have decided to develop the web version based on the current mobile version. So you need to develop wireframes for the layout of your web app. Once you have your wireframe, you also need to develop a prototype by adding interactivity to your wireframe.

Objectives:

1. Listing down functional requirements for all use cases and choose the best solution
2. Create the required wireframes and place the screenshot of each screen on relevant slides
3. Prepare a slide showing the navigational flow for your wireframes
4. Use POP or Mockingbot app to add interactivity and create the prototype

Feel free to add more slides as needed.

2. Activity List

All Activities are listed in this page (either day/week/month-wise or completed or upcoming, etc.)

The screenshot displays a web application titled "Activity List". The browser's address bar shows the URL "http://dotoday.in/activity_list". The application's header includes a "Do Today" title and a "Logout" button. Below the header, there is a section for "Daily Activities" for "Thursday, Jul 5th". A sidebar menu on the left lists activities: "Jogging" (marked with a checkmark and labeled "Personal"), "Meeting" (labeled "Work"), and "Buy Groceries" (labeled "Personal"). A dropdown menu is open, showing options: "Personal", "Work", and "Travel". To the right of the activities, there are time slots: "9:30 AM" with a star icon and "7:00 PM" with a star icon. A "By Category" dropdown menu is also visible, with options "By Category", "By Date", and "By Status". On the right side of the interface, there are two charts: "Activity Progress" (a bar chart) and "Promotions" (a diagram showing a central box connected to several surrounding boxes). At the bottom, there is a navigation bar with links: "Home", "Activities", "Categories", and "Contact Us".
